On March 11, 1966, a letter was circulated carrying the letterhead "martin luther king paris committee for civil rights", which is quoted below:

"Dear Friends:

"On March 28, at 9:30 p.m., the Reverend Martin Luther King, Mr. Harry Belafonte and his group, and M. Hugues Aufray will appear at the Palais des Sports for the benefit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in America. We also hope to have either Odetta or Mahalia Jackson. M. Jacques Monod will introduce the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King and M. Yves Montand will introduce Mr. Belafonte.

"We are an 'ad hoc' committee gathered together specifically to plan 'La Nuit des Droits Civiques'. We believe that civil rights are of concern to Americans everywhere; that visible support for civil rights by Americans abroad is one of the best ways of helping democracy at home; that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has proved itself to be one of the responsible voices in this area and that the evening will be a great one! Dr. King, Mr. Belafonte and M. Aufray are donating their services; we are volunteering ours; M. George Cravenne, the French expert in public relations who has been responsible for such successful events as 'Black and White', is giving of his talents and time to make this also a memorable occasion in Paris. We also ask your support.

"The Palais des Sports seats 5000 persons. We anticipate no difficulty in filling the popular price seats. The 'dress circle' seats, however, will be sold for 100 francs and 85 francs. There are approximately 800 of these seats. It is here that we would like your help. We want to fill

The Committee

"Contributions are welcome. Dollar checks may be made out to 'La Nuit des Droits Civiques' and sent to the First National City Bank, 60, Champs Elysées, Paris 8ème."

Names appearing on the letter as members of the committee are as follows:

S. P. BELCHER
GEORGES CASALIS
ALFRED DAVIDSON
JACK EGLE
JOHN EVARTS
WILLIAM KISH

CRAWFORD JOHNSON
RICHARD MOORE
LEONARD RADLO
MARTIN SARGENT
ART SIMMONS

The names JACK EGLE, Council Director, 2 rue Hypolite Mase, Viroflay, and LEONARD RADLO, Translator, 122 Ave. de Wagram, Paris, appeared on a list of individuals who signed a petition received by the American Embassy, Paris, on December 9, 1965, protesting the American military action in South Vietnam.

ReBuairtel dated 3/28/66, regarding information contained in Atlanta airtel 3/24/66, that HARRY WACHTEL said a housing situation developing on Long Island.

In an effort to resolve what WACHTEL had in mind, the NYO came up with an article which appeared in the March 30, 1966 issue of the Long Island "Newsday", a Long Island daily.

A review of the article captioned, "Meeting Is Set On Bias Charge", reflected that representatives of Federal, State and County agencies will meet on Saturday, April 2, 1966, with Village and North Hempstead Town officials to seek solutions to charges of alleged housing discrimination lodged by civic and civil rights organizations in Manhasset.

Furthermore, the article reports that the meeting was sparked by charges that 85 families, most of them Negroes, who now live in the 110 family Towers Apartments at 2 Spruce St., in the Village of Thomaston, would be displaced by the prospective

Security Matter - C

On March 22, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which disclosed that Stanley Levison was in contact with Daniel Luskind on that date. According to the information which the source was able to gather, the source was of the opinion that Luskind is a New York City stock broker. Furthermore, the source was of the opinion that the contact between Levison and Luskind concerned investments on behalf of Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference).

In regard to the investments, Levison told Luskind that he desired to buy $5000 worth of stock called Utilities and Industries. Luskind said it was selling for $21.50 per share. Levison placed an order for 235 shares of the stock.

Furthermore, Levison instructed Luskind to purchase $5000 worth of stock in the IntraAmerican Life Insurance Company (a new insurance company organized by Clarence Jones). Luskind said this stock was selling for $10.50 per share and was selling over the counter.

Re: Martin Luther King
Security Matter - C

On March 18, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned that Clarence Jones, on that date, was in contact with a Bernie Fishman (phonetic). According to the source, Jones desired to meet with Fishman to obtain Fishman's assistance in handling an investment for Martin Luther King. Jones told Fishman that he, Jones, has the authority to invest some $10,000 for King and that it is a question of whether King wants to put it all in Intramerican (the Intramerican Life Corporation, of which Jones is President), or just $5,000. Jones continued that King is "pretty much committed to $5,000 in Intramerican", but wants to put the other $5,000 in stocks which Jones believes will do as good as Jones thinks Intramerican will do. Jones stated he could not make this judgment and would like Fishman's assistance. u

The source also advised on March 18, 1966, that Bernie (Fishman) agreed to meet with Jones on that date at 425 Park Avenue, New York City. u

The source also ascertained that Jones had requested that Stanley Levison meet him at 425 Park Avenue on the afternoon of March 18, 1966, and that Levison agreed. u

MAR. 17, 1966

On March 16, 1966 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that information available to him reflected that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) had arrived in Chicago during the late afternoon hours of March 15, 1966. King had departed Chicago on March 16, 1966, for Atlanta, Georgia, to the best of [REDACTED] knowledge. [REDACTED] had no specific information concerning activities of King while in Chicago during the period March 15-16, 1966, other than participation in staff meetings with his SCLC workers here in Chicago. b7(D)

The "Chicago Sun-Times", a daily Chicago newspaper, edition of March 17, 1966, contained an article relating to Dr. King. The article reflected that King had advised Chicago's Mayor Daley that he would be unable to accept an invitation from Daley to attend a meeting of religious leaders in Chicago's City Hall on Friday, March 18, 1966. The article reflected that King, in a telegram to Mayor Daley, had stated that previous commitments of long standing in the South would prevent his being present at this meeting. The article noted in this connection that King had been one of twenty-four individuals principally prominent local clergymen invited by Mayor Daley to meet with him on March 18, 1966, to discuss programs for improving housing, education and job opportunities for Negroes in Chicago.

_____ advised the auditorium was set up for an audience of 900 persons. No more than 500 attended at $1.50 per person. The police detail cost $190 and KING and two persons who accompanied him had to stand the ex-

SM - C

At 10:35 p.m. on March 19, 1966, the Boston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation received a phone call from an anonymous male who advised that he had attended a meeting in the Roxbury section of Boston, Massachusetts earlier in the evening, which he would not elaborate on. He went to the men's room when the meeting was concluded and overheard a conversation between several individuals in an adjoining room. These individuals were discussing a plan to start a disturbance in front of a grocery or candy store across the street from a synagogue in Brookline, Massachusetts where Martin Luther King, Jr. was to speak on March 20, 1966. The disturbance would start as King arrived at the synagogue and while the attention of the police was distracted, some individuals located in a yellow school house next to the synagogue would attempt to shoot King.

The caller appeared to be sober and rational but refused to identify himself or give further details. He broke off the phone call when an effort was made to question him further.

[REDACTED] Brookline, Massachusetts Police Department was immediately advised of the above. [REDACTED] stated that King was scheduled to speak at the auditorium of Temple Killhaleth Israel, 370 Harvard Street, Brookline, Massachusetts at about 8:00 p.m. on Sunday evening, March 20, 1966. He would arrive in Boston at Logan International Airport at about 7:00 p.m. and would be escorted from the airport by Massachusetts State Police, Boston, Massachusetts Police Department and the Brookline Police in turn. b7(c)

[REDACTED] of the Boston, Massachusetts Police Department and [REDACTED] of the Massachusetts State Police were advised on March 19, 1966 of the call concerning the planned attempt to shoot Martin Luther King, Jr. b7(c)

On March 21, 1966, [REDACTED] Brookline, Massachusetts Police Department advised that the set up described by the telephone caller did exist as described, namely the candy store across from the auditorium and the yellow school house adjacent to it. The school house was found to have a door open which necessitated a search of the school without finding anything suspicious. It could not be determined if the door was left open through carelessness or deliberately. The candy store and the general area were covered by the Brookline Police, but nothing suspicious was noted.

Martin Luther King arrived at about 8:00 p.m., March 20, 1966 and left at 9:30 p.m. to take the 10:30 p.m. plane from Logan International Airport, Boston, Massachusetts back to New York. The entire visit was without any incident and although the Brookline Police foresaw the possibility of the auditorium being picketed, this did not materialize.

PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION BY
AMERICAN NAZI PARTY,
DALLAS, TEXAS MARCH 17, 1966

[REDACTED] advised that storm troopers in the Dallas Unit, American Nazi Party (ANP), planned to conduct a picket line on the sidewalk at the rear of McFarlin Auditorium, Southern Methodist University (SMU), University Park, Texas, from 3:00 to 4:00 PM, on that date, during which time Martin Luther King would be speaking at the auditorium.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] storm troopers of the Dallas Unit, planned to try to get inside the auditorium while King was speaking to create some incident.

The above information was furnished to Chief of Police [REDACTED] University Park Police Department at 9:30 AM, on March 17, 1966. Chief [REDACTED] advised admission to McFarlin Auditorium would be granted only to students and faculty of SMU, who displayed proper identification.

ENCLOSURE

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] advised on March 17, 1966, that following King's arrival at Love Field, he spoke before a luncheon of the Dallas Pastors' Association at the Melrose Hotel in Dallas, Texas, and that there were no unusual incidents there. b7(D)

At about 2:30 PM, King was observed by Special Agents of the FBI to arrive at McFarlin Auditorium, SMU. During the next hour, before his speech, [REDACTED] of the Dallas Unit, ANP, were observed, in civilian clothing, in front of the auditorium, but neither made any effort to gain admission to the auditorium, nor did either demonstrate in any way. Nothing of an unusual nature was observed in connection with King's appearance at SMU. b7(C)

"The Dallas Morning News" for March 18, 1966, stated King spoke before an overflow crowd in the 2,700-seat McFarlin Auditorium, at the invitation of the academic committee of SMU's Student Senate.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE
NATIONAL SOCIALISTS,
ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963 issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 4, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party;" third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE
NATIONAL SOCIALISTS,
ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

On September 16, 1965, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes he has completed the first three phases in his struggle for power and is now into the fourth stage, to wit, the "attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses." The source stated Rockwell believes this because of his success in gaining a place on the ticket in the November, 1965, gubernatorial election in the State of Virginia.

APPENDIXAMERICAN NAZI PARTY
DALLAS UNIT

On January 24, 1966, a source furnished the following information:

The Dallas Unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) is a local chapter of the ANP which has its national headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. Robert Alan Surrey, a Dallas printing salesman, is Southwestern Regional Coordinator, and Jerald Thomas Walraven is in charge of the Storm Trooper group of the Dallas Unit, both having been appointed by George Lincoln Rockwell, National Commander of the ANP.

As of January, 1966, the Dallas Unit consisted of an estimated 20 to 25 persons, of which nine were in the Storm Trooper group. The mailing address of the Dallas Unit is P. O. Box 2980, Dallas, and its headquarters are located at 3016 Fairmount Street, Dallas, Texas.

Social groups and the Storm Trooper group making up the Dallas Unit hold regular meetings. The Dallas Unit also holds karate classes, law classes, and classes designed to teach Storm Troopers public speaking. The Storm Trooper group frequently holds demonstrations of an anti-Negro or anti-Jewish nature.

[REDACTED] advised that the New York Office of Martin Luther King notified the Brookline Police Department on March 17, 1966, that Dr. King would leave New York City on the evening of March 20, 1966, by the GPM shuttle flight which would arrive at Logan International Airport, East Boston, Massachusetts, at 7:00 PM.

The police will escort Dr. King to Congregation Kehillath Israel auditorium, 370 Harvard Street, Brookline, Massachusetts. He expects to leave the auditorium between 9:45 PM and 10:30 PM for Logan airport to return to New York City.

[REDACTED] advised that tickets for admission to hear Dr. King are $1.50 each and receipts will be given Dr. King.

In view of the current newspaper strike in Boston, Temple officials are worried about a poor turnout because of lack of publicity. They have, therefore, circularized areas where they believe interest in Dr. King can be aroused, advertising the event.

Boston, Massachusetts Police and Massachusetts State Police are aware of Dr. King's schedule.

Re: Martin Luther King;

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership
Conference

The "Detroit Free Press", a Detroit, Michigan daily metropolitan newspaper, in its edition of March 16, 1966, contained an article captioned, "King Sees Calm Detroit Summer". This article went on to state as follows:

"The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King is sure Detroit has racial problems to correct but he doesn't foresee racial trouble for the city this summer.

"Dr. King said 'Our organization (the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Atlanta) isn't going to be here.'

"He said he hasn't discussed Detroit civil rights problems with Detroit leaders in recent months.

"Our recent experience has been in Chicago, and that is where we will be this summer,' Dr. King said.

"We're going to be in all areas, and we will have demonstrations."

"The Nobel Prize winner said he is going to wage war on all fronts of segregation in Chicago, including housing, education, and unemployment.

"We're going to organize units of power into unions to end slums."

"From our experience in Chicago we hope to develop guidelines for other cities."

Re: Martin Luther King
Communist Infiltration of Southern Christian Leadership
Conference

"There is always a possibility that we could come to other cities and Detroit after that. Certainly Detroit has problems to correct."

"Dr. King was in town to speak at two services of the Detroit Council of Churches Lenten series, at Central Methodist Church, Woodward and Adams.

"Ill with the flu, he kept a standing-room crowd at the first service waiting a half hour. Then the crowd had to exit from the back door, to let in those waiting for the second service.

"In his sermon, Dr. King expanded on his pledge to help desegregate Chicago's ghettos and better the status of the Negro.

"He said 100,000 Negroes out of a million in Chicago are 'chronically unemployed.' And 'white high school graduates could earn more money than Negro college graduates,' he added.

"No community in the country can boast clean hands in brotherhood," he said.

"The situation in the North is becoming more serious in many ways than the South, for there is increasing segregation in housing which results in segregation in the schools."

"In Chicago, he said, '97.7 percent of the Negro people find themselves in a ghetto, and 41 percent of the Negroes in Chicago are in deteriorating housing.'

PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION BY
AMERICAN NAZI PARTY,
DALLAS, TEXAS, MARCH 17, 1966

[REDACTED], furnished a proposed itinerary for Dr. Martin Luther King in connection with his coming visit to Dallas. This itinerary reflected Dr. King is scheduled to arrive at Love Field, Dallas, on March 17, 1966, at 11:25 AM, via Delta Airlines from Atlanta, Georgia. A press conference is to be held at Love Field, following which Dr. King will speak to the Dallas Pastors' Association at a downtown church, where luncheon will also be served.

Thereafter, Dr. King plans to go to the Southern Methodist University (SMU) campus at about 3:00 to 3:15 PM, to speak at Mc Farlin Auditorium at 3:30 PM. This speech will be to the faculty and students of SMU, and his appearance is sponsored by the Academic Committee of the Student Senate. The meeting is to be open to the press but not to the public.

Dr. King plans to leave Love Field on the same date at about 7:00 PM.

"The Dallas Times Herald" and "The Dallas Morning News", Dallas, Texas, for Sunday, March 13, 1966, contained news items announcing the forthcoming appearance of King in the Dallas area.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE
NATIONAL SOCIALISTS,
ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963 issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 4, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party;" third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE
NATIONAL SOCIALISTS,
ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

On September 16, 1965, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes he has completed the first three phases in his struggle for power and is now into the fourth stage, to wit, the "attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses." The source stated Rockwell believes this because of his success in gaining a place on the ticket in the November, 1965, gubernatorial election in the State of Virginia.

APPENDIX

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
DALLAS UNIT

On January 24, 1966, a source furnished the following information:

The Dallas Unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) is a local chapter of the ANP which has its national headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. Robert Alan Surrey, a Dallas printing salesman, is Southwestern Regional Coordinator, and Jerald Thomas Walraven is in charge of the Storm Trooper group of the Dallas Unit, both having been appointed by George Lincoln Rockwell, National Commander of the ANP.

As of January, 1966, the Dallas Unit consisted of an estimated 20 to 25 persons, of which nine were in the Storm Trooper group. The mailing address of the Dallas Unit is P. O. Box 2980, Dallas, and its headquarters are located at 3016 Fairmount Street, Dallas, Texas.

Social groups and the Storm Trooper group making up the Dallas Unit hold regular meetings. The Dallas Unit also holds karate classes, law classes, and classes designed to teach Storm Troopers public speaking. The Storm Trooper group frequently holds demonstrations of an anti-Negro or anti-Jewish nature.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on March 8, 1966, that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), had arrived in Chicago at approximately 4:00 p.m. on this date, via Northwestern Air Lines from Atlanta. [REDACTED] had no information concerning specific meetings or engagements on King's part while in Chicago in the next few days, other than a reception on the evening of March 8, 1966 to advertise the March 12, 1966 Freedom Festival, the festival under the joint sponsorship of the SCLC and the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO). [REDACTED] anticipates that most of King's activity for the next few days would be directed toward preparations for the Freedom Festival itself.

b(1)

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago FBI Office that King was to depart Chicago at approximately 1:00 p.m. on this date to travel to East Lansing, Michigan for a speaking engagement, possibly at Michigan State University. [REDACTED] advised that King was to return to Chicago later during the evening of March 9, 1966.

During the afternoon of March 12, 1966, [REDACTED] Office of the Deputy Superintendent, Chicago Police Department, advised that a telephone call had been received by a representative of the Catholic Interracial Council in Chicago, from an anonymous male individual, and during the course of the conversation, the caller had stated that Martin Luther King, Jr. would be shot down this evening at the Chicago International Amphitheatre.

[REDACTED] advised that this is the location where the Freedom Festival is to be held and that the Chicago Police Department is affording additional security to King as a result of this threat.

b7(c) [REDACTED] Office of the Deputy Superintendent, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office of the FBI on March 13, 1966 that those attending the Freedom Festival the previous evening at the International Amphitheater in Chicago had dispersed peacefully subsequent to its conclusion, and that there had been no incidents of any kind during the affair. [REDACTED] advised that no effort had been made to shoot or otherwise physically harm King during the course of this affair.

In connection with the Freedom Festival held on March 12, 1966 in Chicago, the Chicago "Sunday Sun-Times", a Chicago newspaper, contained an article concerning the festival and stated that in his prepared comment to the 12,000 or so persons who were in attendance, King had advised that his anti-slum campaign in Chicago would be enforced by public demonstrations if necessary.

King was quoted in this article as stating, "When it is appropriate, we will encourage sit-ins, stand-ins, rent strikes, boycotts, picket lines, marches, civil disobedience, and any form of protest and demonstrations that are non-violently conceived and executed."

The article continued that Dr. King's speech was the top attraction at the festival, which had presented noted entertainers including Harry Belafonte, Dick Gregory, Mahalia Jackson, Sydney Poitier and others.

King's comments painted a dark picture of the poverty and deprivation of the Negro race, according to the article.

CONFIDENTIAL

He described the living conditions of the Negro immigrant from the South in the slums of Chicago and other large northern and western cities, stating that Chicago has the largest concentration of Negroes in an urban ghetto of any major city in the United States. The Negro is confined here by a conspiratorial noose pulled tight by the racist attitudes and actions of selfish profiteering real estate interests and white residents with restrictive covenants and agreements abetted by the prejudicial practices of mortgage - money lending institutions.

CONFIDENTIAL

An article in the Chicago "Sunday American," a Chicago newspaper, also contained an article concerning the March 12, 1966, Freedom Festival at the International Amphitheatre, describing the audience of some 13,000 as a complete sellout with streets outside the Amphitheatre lined with crowds of individuals, unable to get in, estimated at an additional 10,000. This article reflected that a sum in excess of $100,000.00 had been realized through the proceeds of this festival, the sum to be used to help finance King's anti-slum campaign in Chicago.

On March 14, 1966, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], advised that Dr. King had departed Chicago on March 13, 1966, shortly before noon, en route to New York City, New York. According to [REDACTED] King anticipated return to Chicago on or about March 16, 1966.

b7(D)

In regard to the assumption by King and the SCLC of the "trusteeship" of the so-called slum building on Chicago's west side, an article in the March 10, 1966, edition of the Chicago "Sun-Times" reflects that the landlord of this building, John B. Bender, age 81, was granted a 30-day stay in proceedings directed at placing this building in receivership. The attorney for Bender advised that he was completely destitute and unable to correct the many building violations which existed in the building. An attorney for Dr. King, present at the Circuit Court proceedings, stated that neither the SCLC nor Dr. King has collected any rents so far from the tenants of this building since the assumption of the so-called "trusteeship." It was stated that King has spent $1,500.00 of his own funds fixing up this building to make it more liveable, and pending further court action, did not plan to collect these rents in the foreseeable future.

In connection with the anticipated presence in Chicago of Dr. King during the week of March 14 - 18, 1966, the March 14, 1966 edition of the Chicago "American" contained an article reflecting that Chicago's mayor, Richard J. Daley, had invited 29 leading clergymen in the city to meet with him on March 18, 1966 for a discussion of civil rights and poverty problems in the city. Also invited by Daley to attend this meeting was Dr. King. The article noted that if Dr. King were to accept this invitation, it would be the first meeting between King and Chicago's mayor.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

[REDACTED] advised on March 14, 1966, that the captioned individual assisted in the dedication ceremony marking the opening of the Kennedy-Clark Homes of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, on Sunday, March 13, 1966. 67(9)

Dr. KING was the speaker at a banquet commemorating the above mentioned housing project, held at the Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut, and attended by 600 persons, on the evening of March 13, 1966. In his remarks, the speaker stated "The Negro in 1966 is freer, but he is not free. The Negro in 1966 has more dignity, but he is not yet equal."

Dr. KING also denounced what he termed "the myth of accelerated progress." He outlined the statistical evidence of the alleged oppression of the Negroes of "Chicago's Ghetto", and called that city "a prototype of cities all over the country." He was critical of educational conditions in Chicago, and described Los Angeles as a strong indicator of the problems of the Negro in the North. He claimed to have warned of conditions in Los Angeles prior to the Watts riots of 1965, and claimed to have been told by Mayor SAMUEL YORTY of Los Angeles "that no problems existed. Dr. KING predicted "darker nights than Watts" if the economic plight of the Negro is not dealt with all over the Country.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

HOSEA WILLIAMS, an associate of Dr. KING in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), told of gains in voter registration in the current Alabama campaign, which he is directing. He stated, "There is a new day in Alabama and we ain't going to let nobody turn us around. We're not out to crucify GEORGE WALLACE, but we are out to convert him."

A number of speakers, including Governor JOHN N. DEMPSEY, hailed Dr. KING and praised the project which the banquet commemorated.

[REDACTED] advised on March 14, 1966, that MARTIN LUTHER KING addressed a "Freedom Rally" which was held at the Klein Memorial Auditorium, Bridgeport, Connecticut, on March 13, 1966. b7(D)

During the course of his comments, KING said that "modern man is cursed with a poverty of spirit. Despite the technological advances that have been made, men have not yet learned to live with each other as brothers."

"Man is plagued with three evils: The evil of racial injustice, the evil of poverty, and the evil of war. Although progress has been made, the Negro is not yet free. This constitutes a national problem. Legislation on paper is not enough to free the Negro. Civil rights must be translated from thin paper to thick action."

"Poverty is like an octopus whose tentacles spread throughout the world. Two-thirds of the world's people are hungry."

Citing the Biblical parable, Dr. KING said that "the rich man did not go to hell because he was rich, but because he passed by the poor man every day and failed to see him, and whenever the rich man does not see the poor man, he is doomed."

Dr. KING stated, "The day is past when wars can be fought without affecting more than the nations immediately involved."

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

"Man must put an end to war or it will put an end to him", said KING quoting the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY. KING is against United States intervention in Vietnam purely on moral grounds. He advocates recognizing Red China and the strengthening of the United Nations.

KING pointed out that "If annihilation is to be avoided, it must be made clear that democracy is the best form of Government."

KING described totalitarianism as being unrealistic and opposed to the human spirit.

Approximately 1200 persons were present at this Rally.

Your letter of March 15th has been received. Perhaps you would like to know there is no charge for any services which this Bureau is able to provide.

In response to your inquiry, information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. I am sure you will understand the reason for this policy and why I am unable to furnish the data you requested.

Karl Prussion assisted this Bureau by furnishing information on subversive activities from November, 1949, to July, 1958, during which time he was compensated; however, he was not a Special Agent. His personal ventures, his opinions and comments are strictly his own and the FBI is not in a position to comment on these in any way whatsoever.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Gentlemen:

I am writing you in search for information concerning the affiliation of one Rev. Martin Luther King with the Communist Party in the United States. I am in the process of writing a book that will expose King as a Communist and will show that his movement is Communist inspired.

I am especially interested in the findings of one of your former agents, Karl Prussion. I would appreciate information or sources of information to aid in my research. I will absorb all costs.

Yours truly,
